

The background is a stylized landscape composed of several horizontal layers of color with a grainy, paper-like texture. From top to bottom, the layers are: a dark blue sky, a light blue sky, a pinkish-red landmass, a teal sea, a dark teal landmass, a brownish-orange landmass, and a bright orange foreground. In the center-right, a brown rock formation rises from the sea, featuring a blue fan-like pattern on its side.
